Appendix B : Guidelines

1 General Information

- 1.1 A full description of the purpose and rules of the ISTQB® Partner Program is described in the document “ISTQB® Partner Program – Information Sheet” that is available for download at the www.istqb.org web site and that the applicant declares to have read and understood.

2 Instruction

The application form provides background information about your company and ensures that the ISTQB® can prepare your evaluation for partner registration. The provided information is used to define program qualification status, so please ensure that the application is filled out accurately and completely.

On completing this application form, please save the content and send a PDF version by e-mail to respective ISTQB® National Board or Exam Provider, called “Selling Member Board/Exam Provider” in case of Global Partnership

Within 15 business days of receipt of your application, you will receive notification of the acceptance or rejection of your application, via an Eligibility Notice. If your application was accepted, you will get also a request for the right fee that needs to be paid for.

3 Registration and Issue of Recognition (Letter of Partnership)

The registration of the successful applicant and the issue of a recognition are subject to the eligibility check of the applicant’s fulfillment of the provisions of the ISTQB® Partner Program regulations; this is done by the corresponding ISTQB® Member Board or Exam Provider, called “Selling Member Board/Exam Provider” in case of Global partner.

4 Fees Payable

The applicant will be responsible for the payment of the fees defined by the relevant Member Board.

There are two kind of fees:

- Registration fee (administration fee) - a non-refundable fee of 100 € flat world wide that must be paid before checking the application form. Registration fee should be paid for a new application and for every upgrade application.
- Partnership fee - an additional fee to be paid only if applicant is eligible for partnership, after checking its application/renewal form, and finding it valid.

Global Partnership requires an additional flat fee.

The program application fee covers both the administrative costs related to the eligibility check of the application, reporting of the results, the issue of the Partnership letter and Recognition/Plaque, the listing of the Partnership on the ISTQB® Web Site and the possibility for the applicant to use the “Partner Program” official logo that is relevant to the Partnership level approved. Global Partners will receive a partnership plaque as well.

5. Accompanying Documents

The fully filled application form shall be accompanied by the following documents of the applicant

- a) List of certified testers, who are employees, or full time contractors
- b) Identification of certification for all the professionals in list (a)
- c) Reference for registration fee payment
- d) If you apply for the Global Level, please provide the list of certified testers and the identification of certification for all the sites.
